REPORT

Section 1, Sp. Br. Stklibh. File No. 1102 Date 20. 9. 41 September 19, 1941

SUBJECT: September 18 Anniversary - passed off quietly.

The anniversary of the Mukden Incident (1931), which fell on September 18, passed off quietly without any untoward incident. A small quantity of national salvation literature was surreptitiously disseminated in the Settlement between September 14th and 18th, and some pro-Wang Ching Wei and anti-Foreign handbills made their appearance in the Settlement on September 18th.

On September 15, two male Chinese were arrested by the Police for posting handbills of a national salvation nature in Bubbling Well district and two further arrests were made later. The case against them was still pending at the time this report was compiled.

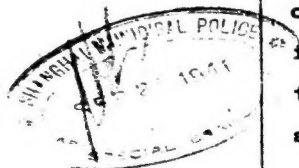

On September 18, motorcar No. 3798 was stopped by the Police at the Yu Yuen Road barrier when 2,000 copies of a pro-Wang Ching Wei handbill were found in the car and the chauffeur and three occupants were taken into custody. They were released later the same day.

A list in tabular form of the handbills which came into the possession of the Police on the occasion of the September 18th Anniversary, giving a brief summary of the contents of the literature and the place of distribution, is attached hereto together with specimens of the handbills.

Anniversary of the Occupation of Manchuria by Japan (1931) - September 18

There is as yet no indication that local radical elements will take advantage of this anniversary to carry out an organized propaganda campaign and/or demonstration. The local Chinese community prefer a silent commemoration of the anniversary.

Discreet enquiries among public bodies, refugee camps and schools ascertained that they will not hold any meetings or undertake any other form of activity. The majority of local theatres and amusement resorts, including the Roof Gardens of the four Department Stores on Nanking Road, intend closing on September 18, as on previous occasions, whilst factories and commercial concerns will carry on business as usual.

However, it is reported that certain patriotic youths will be engaged in chalking slogans and disseminating propaganda literature between September 18 and 19.

No information is at present available as to whether the Shanghai Special Municipal Government and pro-Nanking organizations will conduct any movement in areas, C.C.L..

Any additional information obtained will be made the subject of a further report.

In the year of 1940, I was employed by my master Hien Sz Ming (錢時敏) of No. 34 Chien Tuh Faung, Yu Yuen Road as a chauffeur to drive private m/car Lic. No. 3798.

At about 2p.m. 18/9/41, the m/car was parked in front of the International Printing Works, 889-893 Sinza Road which company has some relations with my master), when my master said "These several persons want a car, and you can take them to any place as they want." These persons, about four in number, some wearing Chinese clothing while some wearing foreign clothing boarded the m/car. One of the persons who had a bundle of paper (pamphlets) in his hand told me to drive to the corner of Hanking and Shensi Roads. I drove the car East along Sinza Road, turning south into Carter Road and later east into B'Well Road and drove straight along. They distributed the pamphlets along B'Well Road. The m/car stopped at the corner of Hanking and Shensi Road, and they alighted and went away. About 1 hour later, they all returned and boarded my car. They then ordered me to take them to the printing company, on Sinza Road which I did. At 6p.m. my master and two others boarded the car, one of the two men named Au Tsung Moh bringing a bundle of pamphlets with him. After they had boarded the car, my master told me to drive to No. 34 Chien Tuh Faung, Yu Yuen Road, but on arriving at the Yu Yuen Road Barrier, the pamphlets were found by the police and we were brought to the station.

I beg to report that at about 8.30 a.m. 18-9-41 I was walking south along Seymour Road toward Avenue Road when I observed an untidily dressed Oriental debbing a tramway pole D.D.56 with some white substance, at the same time stealthily looking on both sides of the road. I came up towards him and saw three posters in Chinese stuck on the poles. The posters were wet and looked as they had just been stuck on. Believing the said Oriental to have been responsible for the posting, I told him I was a Police Officer and searched him to see if he had any more posters on his person. Suddenly he told me in Chinese that he was of Japanese nationality. I then told him to come to the station where the matter could be cleared. He, however, said that he had a bicycle inside the Lane 470 Seymour Road (Pacific Gardens). I went with him into the said lane and he pointed out a motor cycle combination Lic. No. 69. I then telephoned to the Station asking to send a Japanese Detective. At that time the Japanese said he was from the Japanese Consulate and produced a permit to drive m/cycle No. 17"U" in the name of Fujio Uda, c/o the Japanese Consulate.

19.9.41

A few minutes later D.S. 777 Furukawa arrived and spoke to the Japanese after which he told me that the Japanese was a member of the Japanese Consulate Staff and had been removing the posters which were of the Anti-Japanese nature. I explained to D.S. 777 Furukawa that the correct procedure for Japanese if he saw any posters, was to inform the S.M.P. who would have the posters removed. I asked D.S.777 Furukawa to request the Japanese to come to the Station where his identity could be verified and the matter cleared, but this was refused as D.S.777 Furukawa said that the Japanese Consular Police was to be notified first. Leaving D.S.777 Furukawa to carry out the "customary" procedure I went to the Station and reported the incident to the Officer i/c. and the Sen-ior Detective. With a Station Coolie I proceeded to Seymour Road and had all the posters removed.

- Sheet 2 -

Tsai Ming Chuen, 17, Chinkiang, S/Apprentice, residing Lane 20, House 26 Awan Road, states:-

I was born in Chinkiang in 1925. After graduating from primary school in 1938 I came to Shanghai to live with my uncle Tsai Tshun. In November 1940 I obtained a position as apprentice in F. J. Lutfy & Co., 81 Jinkee Road, where my uncle also worked. I have held this position since.

At about 5.30 p.m. 15-9-41, when passing the corner of Szechuen & Jinkee Roads, I saw a male Chinese riding in a public ricksha throw away about 18 white slips of papers. I picked them up and found printed on them a number of patriotic slogans. I then telephoned to one Wang Sung Kung, whose acquaintance I made whilst studying in an evening school in 1939, and asked him to come to Szechuen & Jinkee Roads corner. I showed the handbills to Wang who took them away stating he would have them posted up. We then posted.

In the afternoon of 16-9-41 some detectives came to F. J. Lutfy & Co. and arrested me.

I have never distributed any handbills myself or taken part in any political activities.

Loe Kwei Tau, 17, Zaus'ing, S/Apprentice, residing Lane 43, 28 Hart Road, states:-

I was born in Shanghai in 1925. From 1931 to 1936 I studied in a primary school. In 1939 I went to study English in an evening school where I became acquainted with Tsai Ding Chuen and Waung Sung Kung. At present I am employed as an apprentice by Dr. Lee Ching Wen, Room 403 B, International Dispensary Building, Foochow Road.

At about 10.30 p.m. 15-9-41, after leaving the evening school with my younger brother Loe Kwei Nyau, I met Waung Sung Kung on Avenue Koch near Weihaiwei Road. Waung asked my younger brother to hold a parcel, which I later found to contain a bottle of paste, for him. Then Waung proceeded to post some handbills on the wall. I took one down from the wall in order to read it properly. I then pasted it back on the wall and whilst doing so a policeman arrested me and the two others.

I have never before posted any political slogans or taken part in any political activities.

Wang Sung Kung, 18, Nanking, S/Apprentice, residing 625 Szzechuen Road, states:-

I was born in Shanghai and attended a primary school in Nantao for four years from 1932 to 1936. In 1939 I went to study English in an evening school where I became acquainted with Tsai Ding Chuen and Loo Kwei Dau. At present I am employed as an apprentice in the King Pong Co., a Japanese concern, Room 312, Hardoon Building, Nanking Road.

At about 7 p.m. 15-9-41 Tsai Ding Chuen telephoned me and said he wished to see me at the corner of Szzechuen and Jinkee Roads. Upon arriving there I carried on a conversation with Tsai in the course of which he gave me about 20 handbills which he stated had been thrown from a ricksha. I put the handbills in a book which I was carrying with the intention of reading them later. I then left Tsai and went to the evening school.

At about 10 p.m. 15-9-41 after leaving school, I met Loo Kwei Dau and his younger brother Loo Kwei Ryan on Avenue Foch near Weihaiwei Road. I produced the handbills given me by Tsai and after a discussion Loo Kwei Dau and I decided to post them on the wall. We had posted two sheets when a plain-clothes policeman arrested us. I managed to tear up the rest of the handbills.

I had never on any other occasion posted or distributed any political handbills.

Pamphlets circulated soliciting contributions
under the Conscientious Contribution Movement

With reference to the attached circular handed into Louza Station by the D.C. Crime at about 6 p.m. the 15-9-41. It had been delivered to the management of the Rialto Cinema, Peking and Kweichow Roads. A rough translation reads as follows:-

"To the Rialto Theatre,

It was on the 18th September, ten years ago, when Japanese troops commenced invasion of China's territory. Following the sounding of the War Drum, the youths of the Chinese Nation arose and carried out their historical and sacred salvation work. Chinese soldiers battled in the war front despite the wind and rain, and disregarded death, whatsoever. Citizens at the rear also themselves controlled endured; naturally every body should shoulder responsibility for the nation's prosperity or otherwise.

During the time of war, it is found that your theatre has rendered no assistance to your own country, but has made much money by taking advantage. Approximately estimating that your earnings are thousands and thousands more than previous.

Now the 10th Anniversary of "September 18th" is approaching, and for the purpose of spreading patriotic idea among we Chinese, and also a heavy moral and spiritual strike at the enemy, we suggest that the "Conscientious Contribution Movement" be formed, and would like to express your sympathy.

Prior to the date - September 18th - we invite you to contribute $918.00 to the office of the Chinese-American Daily News under the name of "Tseu I Mang" (郭憶堂). The money will afterwards be distributed by the recipient.

Apart from taking drastic measure against you, should you fail to do so, we must find a way of compelling you to carry out our bidding at any time, date, and place.

Sheet No. 2

On the morning of the 17-9-41, the Secretary of the "Chinese-American Daily News", Koo Ping (顧平) and his accountant, Wong Za Vung (王若文) were interviewed when it was ascertained that they are in no way responsible or connected with the circulating of the circulars in question. They published in their "Daily" on the 16-9-41 and the 17-9-41 respectively insertions when roughly translated, as follows:-

No. 1.

"To be noted by Contributors of 'Conscientious Contributions'"

The motive of this Daily's acceptance of the "Conscientious Contributions" is originally with the hope that readers be conscientious and contribute monetary gifts. The Daily serves for the readers who offer voluntary contributions, no slight force to be used in this direction. Since accepting such contributions ranging from $0.10 to $10,000.00, the Daily has up to the present received a total amount, exceeding $100,000.00. This proved the human conscience, which resulted in readers' fervent contributions. Many of the Daily's enthusiastic readers apart from their own contribution solicit in re.

We welcome readers' self contributions and also their solicitation for same but without using force. We will not be agreeable to those who solicit contributions by means of intimidation, as it is incompatible to the Daily's original practice of accepting same. We will make investigations pending information supplied by readers who are, at the same time, requested to take note re above."

No. 2.

"Urgent Notice published by the Chinese American Daily News"

Our Daily serves for its readers to accept "Conscientious Contributions". No matter what the amount is, but the contributions are voluntary. Moreover, the Daily despatches no men to collect contributions. It is learned that the Daily's $918.00 have been contributed by anonymous donors, names given being:-

| | | | | | |

| (3) | Tsun How Ping | | { 113 留平 } | | { 17-9-41 }. |

This money is accepted by the aforementioned newspaper and placed in a fund. At certain periods, the fund is audited by a public auditor and the money then paid into the Central Bank of China.

As will be seen in the foregoing, no advantage other than to the Chungking Government is being accrued by the person responsible for the printing and circulating of the circulars in question. At present there does not seem to be anyway in which a decoy could be employed to advantage. However, should the newspaper personnel be approached by any suspicious person in re, they have been instructed to call the Police, there being quite a number in the immediate vicinity.

Enquiries proceeding.
